

Accuracy International® Announces Left-hand AX Series Rifles for 2016 Q4

April, 2016

Portsmouth UK- Left-hand versions of the AXMC (AX Multi Caliber) and AX Short Action are the latest addition to the AI family of advanced technology rifle systems providing military, law enforcement and civilian shooters the latest in AI's long line of battle proven attributes: quality, accuracy, ruggedness and extreme reliability. The left-hand AXMC and AX Short Action will be available in Q4 2016.

The AX rifle is a user configurable, mission adaptable, all weather, day/night capable sniper rifle offered in 308/7.62 NATO, 300 Winchester® Magnum and 338 Lapua® Magnum.

Accuracy International, Ltd is widely regarded as the creator of the worlds best sniper rifles. Headquartered in Portsmouth UK for over 35 years, Accuracy International has designed, tested, manufactured, and supported precision rifles and accessories for the most demanding military organizations, police forces and competitive shooters in the world utilizing proven world class manufacturing principals. Accuracy International rifle systems are in use in the UK, US and over 60 countries worldwide.

For Further information contact:

Accuracy International Ltd
Accuracy International of North America, Inc.
Visit us on the web at -

ai@accuracyinternational.org
aina@accuracyinternational.us
www.accuracyinternational.com

“Winchester” is a registered trademark of the Olin corporation, “Lapua” is a registered trademark of the Nammo Group.